Rules

1 Copyright Regulations:

Solo Verse, Prose Reading and Solo Acted Scenes -

Entrants do not have to obtain copyright permission for the performance of any solo selection of less than ten minutes in length.

The title and author must be announced, and words may not be changed nor the gender of a character. It is illegal to change the gender of a character in a play which is still in copyright ie written in the last 70 years. Changing the gender of a character in a play written before this time is permissible but make sure that if it is a translation from eg Chekhov, Ibsen, Molière, the translator is also out of copyright.

The Section Secretary will supply you with a form in which to enter the title, author and publisher after all entries have been received. This must be returned, completed, by the requested date.

2 Copyright Regulations:

Duologues and Group Scenes -

Entrants must obtain the copyright holder's permission for any post 1956 scene. It is your responsibility to check whether your author or translator died before January 1st 1956. You are responsible for any performing licence fees requested by the copyright holder.

The Section Secretary will supply you with a form on which to enter the title, author and publisher, whether copyright or non-copyright, after all entries have been received. This must be returned, completed, by the requested date.

3 PLEASE NOTE that Springboard reserves the right not to refund entry fees if an entrant decides to withdraw.

Adjudicators

Katrina Mulville

RBC Dip (Hons) PGCE; LRAM; AGSM; ALAM; IPA

Katrina studied, for three years, at The Rose Bruford College of Speech and Drama as part of the unique three-year Actor/Teacher Course. Having Graduated with Honours, she won a full time Scholarship to The Guildhall Conservatoire of Music and Drama and went on to study Opera, Musical Theatre, Acting and Piano for a further two years. Whilst then pursuing early professional Theatre work, she was awarded her Licentiate Diploma in Acting, Speech and Drama (LRAM). Katrina, as professional Soloist and Principle, has appeared at many prestigious venues over the years performing in Plays, Operas, Recitals and Concerts at The Drury Lane Theatre, The Shaw Theatre, Sadler's Wells, The Purcell Room and the QEH.

Katrina is an experienced Director, as well as performer, and has enjoyed producing plays, concerts and shows with adults through to young children in a variety of styles ranging from Pantomime and Gilbert and Sullivan's Light Operettas through to Shakespeare and Grand Opera.

A longstanding member of LAMDA's Examining Board, for over 35 years, she has also regularly lectured and given Masterclasses for LAMDA and other multiple agencies in Mime, Improvisation, Acting, Voice Production and Musical Theatre, to name but a few.

Katrina has served for many years as a Headteacher across the State, Private and Independent sectors. She recently took early retirement to focus on and further develop her private Communications, Speech and Drama School, Studio 'K', which she co-runs with her (fellow thespian) husband, Stefan. She has also increased her work and commitment as both a LAMDA Examiner and BIFF Adjudicator.

Katrina is delighted to be Adjudicating at the wonderful Springboard Brighton and Hove Festival, this year, and is very much looking forward to working with all the Festival community.

Vivienne Redford

Vivienne has studied Speech and Drama since the age of four and has been teaching the subject since 1980.

She worked as Head of Speech and Drama at a large independent girls' school in Bedford for 34 years, and is the Principal of the Redford School of Speech and Drama - established in 1982 - which trains children and adults in all aspects of performing arts and communication.

Many of Vivienne's former students are now working in TV, film and theatre around the world including in major West End productions, at the Globe, the RSC and the National Theatre. Others have gone on to establish successful careers as Directors, Technical specialists and as speech and drama teachers.

Away from her own school, Vivienne is an Examiner and Team Leader for the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art (LAMDA) and an Adjudicator member of the British and International Federation of Festivals (BIFF), travelling extensively throughout the UK, Ireland and Channel Islands. She is currently a representative for Speech and Drama on the Adjudicators Council.

She has been awarded a Fellowship of the Royal Society of Arts in recognition of her extensive work in Speech and Drama, particularly with young people.
