Rules

1 Age limit: Unless specified, the age limit is 19 years, based on the performer's age on 31 December in the year prior to the Festival. There are several classes open to adults.

2 Any piece of music to be played ONLY ONCE in the Festival, in the same year, except when used in the final of the Junior or Senior Championship or in Class 251 Play & Praise Concert.

3 Graded Classes - Music chosen for the Graded Classes does not have to be from an exam syllabus and can include any style of music, including jazz, with the exception of Rule 5b - see below. The adjudicator's decision as to the acceptable grading of the performer's chosen piece will in all cases be final. Tony Purkiss (01237 774730) will be happy to give advice on this.

4 Time limits. Performers are asked to pay close attention to the time limit for each class. A performance that is over the time limit may not receive a mark in a competitive class.

5 Jazz and light music

a) Arrangements of pop music and music from shows, films and games will also be accepted in Classes 224, *245-*248.

b) An arrangement of the above types of music will be accepted in Graded Classes but only if it is from a current or past syllabus of an established exam board.

6 Repeats are discretionary unless Da Capo or Dal Segno is marked.

7 A copy of the music to be performed must be brought to the festival for the adjudicator to refer to during the performance. Photocopies are acceptable but will be destroyed after the class.

8 Performers are expected to announce the composer and title of the piece(s) they will be playing clearly and audibly at the start of their performance.

9 Please also see rules relating to Junior and Senior Championship on page 7.

10 PLEASE NOTE that Springboard reserves the right not to refund entry fees if an entrant decides to withdraw.

Adjudicators

Richard Deering

Richard has been an adjudicator member of the British and International Federation of Festivals for well over 30 years, adjudicating at an average of 12 festivals a year, including many overseas festivals, as a piano or brass specialist and generalist.

Although no longer active as a performing brass player, he has given piano performances - as soloist and accompanist - in over 90 countries and has held teaching positions in establishments such as London College of Music, Trinity College of Music, Middlesex University, Cambridge University, Auckland University and New York State University. Composers of the calibre of Malcolm Arnold, Malcolm Williamson, Edward Gregson, Edward McGuire, Thomas Wilson, Bernard Stevens, Brian Chapple and Charles Camilleri have written piano works especially for him, and for several years Richard had a close performing relationship with Elisabeth Lutyens.

In 2023 he recorded the entire piano works of Hubert Parry and William Wordsworth, as two separate projects, and these are now available on the Heritage label, while his recording of Lutyens piano music, recorded on her 70th birthday, is due for re-issue.

Richard was also an Adviser to the London Arts Board on contemporary music and jazz. He has also made several other commercial recordings in both UK and Japan. His Federation work included serving on the Central Board of Trustees, Vice-Chair of the Adjudicator's Council and with the administration of the PGCA qualification. He was also one of the presenters at both the Warwick and Leeds BIFF celebratory events in 1996 and 2000 respectively. Currently he is the Chair of Trustees of Croydon Performing Arts Festival and, was honoured, by being elected as a BIFF Fellow in 2012.

Ann Martin-Davis

Ann Martin-Davis's love of 20th century and contemporary art crosses all genres and much of her career has been spent exploring new and appealing ways of presenting solo piano and chamber music.

Ann studied at the Royal College of Music with Phyllis Sellick and in her second year won the College's premier piano prize, the Chappell Medal. A series of awards led to a South Bank debut and she subsequently won scholarships to study with Arie Vardi in Hanover and Gyorgy Sebok at the Banff School in Canada.

At this time Ann worked with Polish composer Witold Lutoslawski and her subsequent disc of his solo piano and chamber works was described as 'beautiful and exquisite' by BBC Music Magazine. Her recent disc of Ravel for Guild has also been critically acclaimed; described by Gramophone as having a 'delicacy and simplicity; it's tender melancholy are thoroughly convincing.'

Ann is co-director of 'Piano at Le Maillard' which offers advanced coaching and piano retreats at her home in the Charente. She has been described as 'a compelling ambassador for classical music' by

The Times newspaper and over the last five years she has trained over four thousand piano teachers for professional associations throughout South East Asia, China, America and the UK.

As well as her music, Ann is a keen gardener, having high hopes this year for her tomato varietal 'big boy.' She is also chef and playmate to Gus and Sofie, her two mischievous wire-haired Dachshunds.
